For Best Results

It is recommended that you strip back your skincare routine to the basics and start with a blank slate. It is also recommended that you do not use other new skincare products while you are testing our products on your skin. The reason for this is you will not really know which of the products caused a reaction if you introduce too many at one time. If you usually do not have a problem with reactions on your skin, you should not have a reaction.

Care & Storage Instructions

Store below 25 degrees celsius. Keep out of direct sunlight. Store in a dry place. Do not allow water to enter your product.

Directions & Warnings Before Use

Apply a patch test first in the area of use. Stop using this blend immediately and seek medical advice if you have an allergic reaction or it causes irritation. For external use only. Keep out of reach of children.
